

Caldwell, Gaudalupe, and Hays counties; Hays the returning county.—William Franklin Delany, of Seguin, Gaudalupe county, was born in Monroe county, Georgia; emigrated to Texas in 1854, and settled in Gaudalupe county; entered the Confederate service in 1862, and served in the Eighth Texas Infantry, at Galveston, until the close of the war; was elected to the House, as a Greenkacker, over two Democratic opponents.